

AGES FIVE TO EIGHT

Luna, the Fairy of the Night

This is Luna. She is not an ordinary girl, she's also a fairy. In the day she looks just like a regular little girl, but at night she can turn herself into a special little fairy. And in the night is where the fun begins.

First Luna goes to bed, but she doesn't sleep. Oh no, she waits for her parents to fall into a very deep sleep. Next she stands up on her bed, spins around and says her magic words, "STARRY, STARRY NIGHT, WORK YOUR MAGIC AND MAKE ME FLY...INVISIBLY, THROUGHOUT THE SKY! And "POOF!" she grows wings and becomes a very small but powerful, magical fairy.

Luna then flies out her window and into children's homes. By using her special sparkly fairy dust, she can magically turn any nightmares into wonderful dreams.

For instance, little Tommy had a horrible nightmare about vampires. Luna came and turned the vampires into frogs who hopped far, far away, right out of Tommy's mind!

And another time, little Jenny had a dream about being lost in the jungle and Luna turned that dream into one about being found in a field of beautiful Unicorns.

In another adventure of Luna's, she helped some twins who dreamed about switching bodies and couldn't get back to being themselves. But then Luna came and helped them get back to normal. With a swoosh of her magic wand, "POOF!" they were back to their old selves again.

Katie was someone else in need of Luna's help. Katie's nightmare was one of the worst ones Luna had ever had to fix. It was filled with monsters, bats, zombies, witches and werewolves too. Luna magically turned the bad creatures into sweet, meowing kitty cats.

Katie's dream was almost scary enough to keep Luna from doing her magic ever again.

But lucky for us, there came a little boy named Jake who Luna rescued from the worst nightmare ever. His dream was about pirates trying to steal everything he had, including his family and his life. Luna actually got captured by the pirates in Jake's dream. This was the first time this type of thing had ever happened to poor Luna! She was tied up, and scared half to death, but luckily she just happened to know something the pirates didn't. She knew magic words that would untie her and set her free. She spoke her magic words ever so quietly "ROPES, ROPES SO THICK AND STRONG. UNRAVEL PLEASE, AND SEND ME HOME!" and as soon as she said those words, "POOF!" she was untied! And would you believe she then used her magic to then turn the pirates into little, whining puppy dogs that scampered right off the plank of the pirate ship.

Luna was a little scared from her adventure, but escaped safely and flew straight home and went to bed. And as Luna was falling asleep, she decided there and then that no matter how scary the dreams were that awaited her, she would never give up changing bad dreams into pleasant, happy ones.

And that's the story of Luna, the Fairy of the Night. Good night. Sleep tight. And never fear, Luna is always watching down over you as you sleep away each night. Sweet dreams.
